

	Key knowledge to be transferred to long term memory	Building on previous knowledge and skills, you will remember:		Key knowledge to be transferred to long term memory	Building on previous knowledge and skills, you will remember:
	Our locality is the area around our home or school.	In Year 2, you learnt that Kirton is our local area and created a map.	Preserving the Past, Constructing the Future Knowledge and Skills		Grade 1 listed buildings are very special and cannot be changed without permission. Buckingham Palace is an extremely famous Grade 1 listed building in the UK.	In Year 2, you learnt that St Paul's Cathedral (another Grade 1 listed building) burnt down during the Great Fire of London.
	A building or place can be special and preserved for many different reasons.	In Year 1, you learned that memorials are made to remember people and events in the past.			Church of St Peter and St Paul in Kirton is a local Grade 1 listed building.	In Year 1, you learned that Kirton church is a special building in our local area.
	A building could be special because of its architecture. The Boston Stump is special because it is a church without a spire.	In Year 1, you visited Kirton church which doesn't have a spire.			Grade 2 buildings are important and of special interest. Battersea Power Station is a famous Grade 2 listed building in the UK.	In Year 3, you learnt that the statue of Sir William Dennis, outside the Town Hall is a Grade 2 listed structure.
	William Dennis built a huge potato empire and paid for Kirton Town Hall to be built.	In Year 2, you learned that around Kirton there are lots of fields so lots of crops are grown in our area.			Blackfriars Art Centre in Boston is a brick built, Grade 2 listed building.	In Year 1, you learnt that brick is a suitable material for buildings and it makes them last a long time.
	A building could be special because it's very old or rare. The Old King's Head is a listed building because it is on the important old road from London to Boston.	In Year 2, you learnt that castles are old buildings.			To help to protect them, people campaign to get buildings listed. The statue of Sire William Dennis became Grade 2 listed in 1988.	In Year 1, you persuaded somebody to visit your chosen city as a travel agent through role play.

Key Vocabulary
architecture	the design of a building
campaign	to act to get something changed
heritage	something handed down from the past to be preserved for future generations
leisure	free time when you can do what you like listed	putting buildings on a special list to protect them
migration	to move from one place to another
preserve	to stop something being destroyed or changed

The Big Event

